Celebrating Diverse Identities

Schoolwide's SEL & Culturally Diverse Classroom Library set for Pre-K is a comprehensive collection of books for read-aloud, as well as independent reading and browsing for preschool students. Just as Dr. Rudine Sims Bishop references in her metaphor of books as, "windows, mirrors, and sliding glass doors," we believe it's extremely important for children to see themselves in books, and that they learn about the lives and experiences of others through literature.

In support of these collections, our mission is to:

- Choose diverse books by diverse authors
- Curate inclusive classroom libraries
- Partner with publishers who focus on the intersection of identity and diversity

Our Criteria for Selecting Culturally Responsive, Student-Centered Texts

Are diverse characters accurately illustrated?

Texts that teach about Black/African American contributions to the United States beyond the Civil Rights Movement

Main characters who are BIPOC (black, indigenous, or people of color)

Main characters who represent non-traditional gender roles

Characters who represent and affirm the LGBTQ+ community (gender identity and gender expression)

A range of family structures and family configurations

Characters with diverse abilities

Different socioeconomic backgrounds

Religious diversity

Human characters versus non-human, anthropomorphic main characters (e.g., talking animals, talking trucks, talking vegetables, imaginary creatures, etc.)
